“MAKING AN IMPACT: THE CHANGING NATURE
OF COMMUNITY PHILANTHROPY, INNOVATIVE INVESTMENT AND TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP”

ALICIA DICKS

Alicia Dicks is president and CEO of The Community Foundation of Herkimer and Oneida Counties, Inc. Prior to joining The Foundation, she served as president of the Fort Schuyler Management Corporation, where she managed the construction, maintenance and operations of the Computer Chip Commercialization Center at SUNY Poly.

Dicks spent more than a decade at National Grid in several managerial and operational positions. She began her public policy career at the Albany Local Development Corporation and in Albany city government, facilitating urban planning, development and construction projects.

She earned a master’s degree in Urban and Regional Planning from the University at Albany and a bachelor’s degree in International Relations from SUNY Cortland. She serves on many local boards, including the “Save of the Day” Foundation, the School and Business Alliance and Mohawk Valley EDGE, and was a co-chair of the MV500 initiative.
